The compensation described above shall constitute the University’s total commitment until modified by the Regents, the President, or the Chancellor, as applicable under Regents policy, and shall supersede all previous oral and written commitments. Compensation recommendations and final actions will be released to the public as required in accordance with the standard procedures of the Board of Regents.

Background to Recommendation

The President of the University recommends approval for the appointment of and compensation for Katherine A. Yelick as Vice Chancellor for Research, Berkeley campus, at 100 percent time, with a proposed annual base salary of $430,000 effective upon Ms. Yelick’s start date, which is estimated to be on or about January 1, 2022. Ms. Yelick will maintain her tenured faculty appointment at zero percent time, without salary.

The proposed base salary is 6.6 percent above the 75th percentile ($403,500) of the position’s Market Reference Zone; therefore, the action requires Regental approval.

The position will continue to be funded partially or fully using State funds.
Committee vote: Regents Cohen, Drake, Elliott, Estolano, Leib, Park, Reilly, and Sherman voting “aye.”

Approved January 20, 1995

The Board of Regents reaffirms its commitment to openness and transparency in the conduct of the University’s business. Meetings of the Board of Regents shall be conducted in compliance with California open meeting laws applicable to the University of California. Members of the public are invited to attend open sessions of Regents meetings and may address the Regents of the University of California whenever the Board or any of its Committees meets in open session in accordance with the guidelines below. In addition, written communications to the Regents are always welcome.

1. On any day that the Board or any of its Committees meets in open session, the first open meeting will include a twenty-minute period for the purpose of hearing public comment. Individual speakers will be invited to speak for up to three minutes, depending on the number of individuals who have signed up to speak.

2. In order to accommodate those individuals wishing to speak when more people have signed up to address the Board or Committee than can be heard, the Chair may adjust the procedures at their discretion.

3. Speakers at the public comment sessions may address any University-related matter. When signing up to speak, individuals will identify the matter they wish to address.

4. A sign-up sheet is used to record those who wish to address the Regents. Anyone who wishes to speak must contact the Office of the Secretary and Chief of Staff by 5 pm the day before the public comment period after the Notice of Meeting for the meeting has been published or may sign up on the day of the meeting. The sign-up sheet is made available at the meeting location at least one hour before the public comment period is scheduled, and members of the public must sign up prior to the beginning of the meeting. Speakers may choose to attend in person or address the Regents via telephone during the public comment session.

5. Three or more speakers may pool their time to provide up to seven minutes for a group representative. Those individuals intending to yield their time must be present at the meeting when their names are called to confirm their willingness to do so. If individual speaking times are reduced at the meeting, pooled times will also be reduced. Individuals who speak for less than their allotted time may not or yield their remaining time to another speaker.

6. Written comments and materials are welcome brought for the Regents by speakers will be accepted during public comment and will be available to the Regents during the duration of the meeting.

7. Attendees have the right to record the meeting, consistent with open meeting laws, as long as that activity does not constitute a persistent disruption of the proceedings.
