2. APPROVAL OF INCENTIVE COMPENSATION USING NON-STATE FUNDS FOR FISCAL YEAR 2020–21 FOR JAGDEEP SINGH BACHHER AS CHIEF INVESTMENT OFFICER AND VICE PRESIDENT – INVESTMENTS, OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT AS DISCUSSED IN CLOSED SESSION

The Committee recommended approval of an incentive award of $1,384,416 for Plan Year 2020–21, under the Office of the Chief Investment Officer Annual Incentive Plan (AIP), for Jagdeep Singh Bachher as Chief Investment Officer and Vice President – Investments, Office of the President. The recommended incentive award represents 200 percent of Mr. Bachher’s total salary paid as of the end of the 2020–21 Plan Year of $692,208.

The incentive compensation described above shall constitute the University’s total commitment regarding incentive compensation until modified by the Regents or the President, as applicable under Regents policy, and shall supersede all previous oral and written commitments. Compensation recommendations and final actions will be released to the public as required in accordance with the standard procedures of the Board of Regents.

1 Roll call vote required by the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act [Government Code §11123(b)(1)(D)] for all meetings held by teleconference.
Vice President Lloyd introduced the item, which sought approval for an incentive award of $1,384,416, payable in three annual installments, for Chief Investment Officer Bachher for the 2020–21 plan year under the Office of the Chief Investment Officer Annual Incentive Plan (AIP) and would be funded entirely with investment returns. The award reflected an attainment level at “maximum” level or 200 percent of the total base salary paid from July 1, 2020 through June 30, 2021. Attainment at “target” level would be 100 percent of salary earned. The qualitative portion of the award was based on his annual performance evaluation, in which Mr. Bachher received a rating of “outstanding.” Therefore, the qualitative portion, 25 percent of the total award, was at the maximum amount.

Upon motion duly made and seconded, the Committee approved the recommendation and voted to present it to the Board, Regents Cohen, Drake, Elliott, Estolano, Leib, Park, Reilly, and Sherman voting “aye.”

Vice President Lloyd introduced the item, which sought approval for the appointment of and compensation for Katherine A. Yelick as Vice Chancellor for Research, Berkeley campus with a proposed annual base salary of $430,000. There were no exceptions to policy in this item. The proposed base salary was 6.6 percent above the 75th percentile ($403,500) of the position’s Market Reference Zone and required approval by the Regents. Ms. Yelick would maintain her tenured faculty appointment at zero percent time, without salary.

Upon motion duly made and seconded, the Committee approved the recommendation and voted to present it to the Board, Regents Cohen, Drake, Elliott, Estolano, Leib, Park, Reilly, and Sherman voting “aye.”

4. AMENDMENT OF REGENTS POLICY 1302: POLICY ON PUBLIC ACCESS TO MEETINGS AND PUBLIC COMMENT

The Chair of the Board recommended that the Regents amend Regents Policy 1302: Policy on Public Access to Meetings and Public Comment as shown in Attachment 1.

[Background material was provided to Regents in advance of the meeting, and a copy is on file in the Office of the Secretary and Chief of Staff.]

Secretary and Chief of Staff Shaw explained that this action would amend Regents Policy 1302: Policy on Public Access to Meetings and Public Comment, which concerned appearances by members of the public before the Regents. The proposed amendment would make permanent the practice of the last year-and-a-half, which was to allow individuals to call in by telephone for the public comment period. In addition, individuals would be able to appear in person, once the Regents meetings were again held in person. The item proposed to extend the time allotted for public comment from 20 minutes to 30 minutes per day. The item would end the pooling of individuals in the public comment period; this would ensure that individuals participating by telephone and those participating in person were treated equally. Current policy allowed individuals to pool their time, and this would be eliminated. The action would also establish a deadline for signing up for public comment at 5 p.m. on the prior day.
Committee Chair Estolano commented that this amendment would enhance the ability of the public to participate. Many more people had been able to participate by telephone, and this practice should continue.

Referring to the requirement that individuals sign up for the public comment period by 5 p.m. the day before the meeting, Regent Leib asked about the current rule. Ms. Shaw responded that, under current policy, individuals could sign up in person until the meeting begins. The 5 p.m. deadline had been set in order to more easily manage both people calling in and those appearing in person.

Regent Cohen suggested that this element of the policy might be reconsidered, depending on how well this functioned when the Regents began meeting in person again. He felt that, for a public meeting, it should be possible for an individual to sign up for public comment on the day of the meeting. Committee Chair Estolano confirmed that this could be reviewed. The deadline was meant to help with the logistics of arranging for each speaker in turn. Ms. Shaw observed that this type of deadline was common practice at other universities, such as the California State University.

Regent Lott asked how people without access to the internet who wished to speak in person could sign up by the deadline. Ms. Shaw responded that individuals can sign up by telephone or email.

Regent-designate Timmons expressed support for the proposed amendment, which would increase access and inclusion at the meetings.

Committee Chair Estolano asked if it would be workable to have individuals sign up for public comment an hour before the meeting. Ms. Shaw responded that this would be challenging, but could be done.

Regent Zaragoza suggested that a certain number of slots might be set aside for individuals calling in, speaking in person, and those who might come to the meeting and wish to speak on the same day.

Committee Chair Estolano stated that she was in favor of having one rule for all speakers. She asked if Ms. Shaw and her office could manage speakers signing up an hour before a meeting, both by phone and in person. Ms. Shaw responded that this could be managed.

Regent-designate Timmons expressed concern that someone might sign up to speak and not be called; this might cause bad feeling. Committee Chair Estolano observed that there were often more people wishing to speak than there was time to hear. Ms. Shaw confirmed that this was almost always the case.

Regent Leib noted that the proposed amendment had been publicly posted. He asked if any comments had been received. Ms. Shaw responded in the negative. Regent Leib suggested that the Regents approve the amendment and see how well the public comment period functioned when the Regents returned to in-person meetings. If there were complaints by the public, the format could be reviewed.

Upon motion duly made and seconded, the Committee approved the Chair of the Board’s recommendation and voted to present it to the Board, Regents Cohen, Drake, Elliott, Estolano, Leib, Park, Reilly, and Sherman voting “aye.”

5. DATES OF REGENTS MEETINGS FOR 2023

The Chair of the Board and the President of the University recommended that the following dates of Regents meetings for 2023 be approved:

<table>

<tr>

</tbody>
</table>

[Background material was provided to Regents in advance of the meeting, and a copy is on file in the Office of the Secretary and Chief of Staff.]

Secretary and Chief of Staff Shaw explained that this was a routine item. Once the dates of Regents meetings were approved, she would work with the Office of the President and the Chair of the Board to determine locations.

In response to a question by Regent Zaragoza, Ms. Shaw explained that, in scheduling the dates of Regents meetings, her office considers days that would create conflicts for the student Regents, dates of California State University Board of Trustees meetings, because certain Regents serve on both boards, and religious holidays. This scheduling can be challenging.

Upon motion duly made and seconded, the Committee approved the Chair of the Board and the President of the University’s recommendation and voted to present it to the Board, Regents Cohen, Drake, Elliott, Estolano, Leib, Park, Reilly, and Sherman voting “aye.”

The meeting adjourned at 6:10 p.m.
